

1
2
3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

5 MORGAN STANLEY, et al.,

6 Plaintiffs,

7 v.

8 HANS JECKLIN, et al.,

9 Defendants.

2:05-cv-1364-LDG-LRL

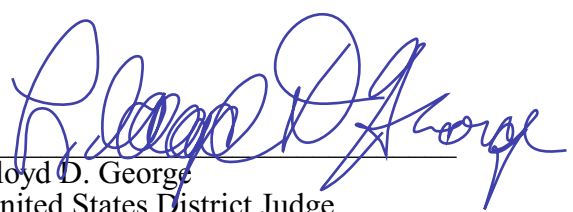

ORDER

10
11 Based on the arguments of the parties, and good cause appearing, the court will grant 12 plaintiffs' motion for permission to move for summary judgment (#259, response #275, joinder in 13 response #276, response #277, reply #278, errata to response #280, reply #282).

14 THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS that plaintiffs' motion for permission to move for 15 summary judgment (#259) is GRANTED. The scheduling order is AMENDED to provide 16 plaintiffs ninety (90) days from the date of the filing of this order in which to file their motion for 17 summary judgment.

18 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that as an administrative matter, and in the interest of 19 consolidating consideration of the dispositive motions in this case, all pending motions before the 20 district judge (including #231, #232, #233, #243, #236, #237, #239, and #300) are hereby 21 DENIED without prejudice and subject to their sua sponte reinstatement by the court after 22 plaintiffs' motion for summary is ripe for consideration.

23 DATED this 12 day of September, 2010.

24
25
26 Lloyd D. George
United States District Judge